

I am not in favor of the national bankers association petition. I want cell phones on the no-call list. It would nice if charities , political groups & various associations could be stopped from calling and looking for donations.